

Please make it clear to radio stations that people expect balanced coverage from them. We also like to hear local points of view.

Sinclair's actions show why it's important to strengthen media ownership rules so that media ownership is as diverse as our country. They show why the license renewal process needs to have public input.

Thank you for listening and being a watchdog for the airwaves.